

I am opposed to the elimination of the ban on cross-ownership because it will not serve the public interest. Further consolidation will mean less diversity, less accountability and more commercialism.